

Anubhuti Banerjee

Anubhuti holds a degree in Engineering from Jadavpur University, Kolkata and is a former DAAD (German Academic Exchange) WISE scholar. She began coming out in 2015 as a transgender woman at her workplace, a part of one of India's biggest manufacturing conglomerates. Her journey to being who she is has been two-fold - her internal journey of discovery and rediscovery of her identity and the external journey of what it means to be a self-made woman in today's Society and the Corporate World.
